

The benefits of mind mapping for students are many.

Using a mind map a student is able to:

- Organize concepts and sequence events.
- Brainstorm ideas,
- Understand detailed facts such as differences and similarities.
- Recall details through relationships and connections,
- Communicate by noting patterns and correlations,

Mind maps are used to visually represent ideas and concepts and assist students with recognizing relationships and contexts.

Example:

Resources

Birbili, M. (2006). Mapping knowledge: Concept maps in early childhood education. Early Childhood Research and Practice, 8(2).

<http://bdmtech.blogspot.com/2013/08/inspiration-maps-for-ipad-mind-mapping.html>